MEET OUR MAJOR SCHOLARS

- Every danger loses some of its terror once its causes are understood.
Konrad Lorenz
- Learning about mobbing is learning to see a group's collective cruelty, not just the actions of individuals. It is a lesson in how the power of the majority can be used to crush the individual.
René Girard (paraphrased)
- Mobbing is a 'psycho-terror'.
Heinz Leymann
- One of the hardest things to learn about mobbing is that it can happen in any organization, even those that pride themselves on their ethical standards. It's often invisible until it becomes unbearable for the victim.
